In our Edinburgh tea shops, we stock a large and varied range of delicious leaf teas. From traditional black and green teas to caffeine-free infusions and rooibos, we have a tea(s) that will suit your taste buds.

We have visited and lived in countries like Russia and Azerbaijan where tea is the ultimate symbol of hospitality. Yet it is drunk in different ways each time, whether with a slice of lemon in Russia, through a cube of sugar tucked between your lips, or with mint... each way being as pleasant as the other and connecting people around this delicious warming beverage."
